An Era Comes To an End as...

Mr. R

...Calls it a Career.

Joseph Remenap graduated from Kellogsville High School in 1964, and from Central Michigan in 1970. For seven years he taught physical education and science at Grand Rapids Central High School. In February of 1977 he came to Capac. He has been married for twenty-eight years and has two children. He has experienced many ordeals here, from the comical, (a Volkswagon was once placed on top of the school), to the cruel, (cars keyed, tires slashed). Through it all, he has remained dedicated to his position and his school.

What is your best memory of Capac High School?

I think my children graduating from here, which was a real fine point considering what they had to put up with. Their old man was principal, and it was nice to see how they handled it. I think the fact that we were North Centrally accredited is also important. That was a big thing, that took me five years to organize. That's a highlight. Another highlight is staff development. We have an excellent high school staff. It's a great mixture of just the right amount of people with enough experience, those teachers in their middle years and I've got the real young teachers. Kids respond to people right out of college.

What is the biggest change you've seen in students?

It's social, hair and clothes styles have changed dramatically. And tattoos, I've never seen so many tattoos. It's the biggest fad I've seen in my life.

What do you remember about your high school principal?

My principal was no nonsense, talk seldom and the term "office" was an ominous word. It was not a nice place to go. I didn't do anything bad in high school, I wasn't in trouble, so I got along with the guy. After I graduated from high school I went to college with his son. I found out then that his dad (the principal) was a real nice guy, totally different than he was in school.

What do you remember about your high school?

I couldn't wear blue jeans. I went to public high school and we couldn't wear blue jeans. I think my senior year they finally caved in and said we could wear them.

Has education improved since then?

Very much so! Number one thing I definitely remember is that we didn't have special education. I can remember back now, kids who definitely needed help. I think we go far more in depth now than we did then, for example your Calculus class, or pre-cal, French 1,2,3, and four years of Spanish. Before we had maybe two years.

If you hadn't been a principal, what would you have been?

I would have looked into law enforcement, I was into law enforcement in college. Maybe conservation. Or if I hadn't been principal, I probably would have stayed in physical education as a consultant. I liked phys. ed.

What is the craziest thing a student has ever done?

They put a Volkswagon up on the catwalk here, the canopy.

How?

They used a forklift. It was well thought out by great kids. I've had picnic tables on my store roof. They've done some things that I can't even say. Things that I have laughed about. They'll stick in my mind.

What will you do when you're retired?

I'm probably going to work part time for the North Central Assosiation and at my store. I'll do a lot of hunting from September to December.

Best golf score?

I have shot 37 once for nine, and 79 for eighteen, both out at Holly Meadows. Great time.

How much has the computer changed education?

Unbelievable, unbelievable. Technology and the information age used to double about every fifty years, now it's doubling much more rapidly. I can go back to Mrs. Wallace (BST teacher) saying that she had stayed up until midnight, just to keep ahead of the kids for the next day in computer class. The kids pick it up so quickly.

They're so sharp with it. Some people are petrified. I'm probably one of them, I'm not real bad, but you might classify me in that area. I've got a million things going on and a lot of the time I don't learn the software that I should. The ladies do it and they are constantly going places to keep updated, with information to make the school run better.

Any strange hobbies?

I don't know, people might think I'm strange, but I don't think so. My hobbies are hunting and collecting deer portraits. I've probably got fifteen or sixteen of those. I also collect deer hunting videos, I've probably got sixty of those.

Any by famous artists?

Chuck Denault is real famous, he's probably my favorite. Harold Annis is out of U of M, he's pretty good. This is cosigned by Bud Grant, coach of the Vikings, that's his farm. (Portrait of vacant deer stand, under which are four deer. Titled "Wish You Were Here.") I saw that last week and I really liked it. You've got to look at it, I mean there are pheasants, there are partridge, there are squirrels all over. It's a neat print.

What was your first day as principal like?

I suspended eight kids for smoking in the first three minutes I was in this building. It was a nice way to start. I've had basketballs thrown the full length of the full gym, which hit me in the shoulder, garbage dumped in my garage, cars keyed, scratched, tires punctured. That was probably the first semester. It took us about two years to get things to the point where they knew we meant business. That's exactly what it was, a business. I didn't dislike anybody, I just disliked their actions. Once they found out that the guy doesn't hate everybody, just what they do, things began to work. When I started knowing the parents, I knew I was in. There was a time here when I knew everybody's name. I don't any more because there's seven hundred and some kid's around. At any given point I knew every kid's name and most of their parents.

What was your first job?

Teaching PE and Science in Grand Rapids.

Advice for the new principal?

Stay consistent. Try to treat every student the same. Consistency is key.

*Hey, nice shades,
Katie Kolaczynski!*

Best Times

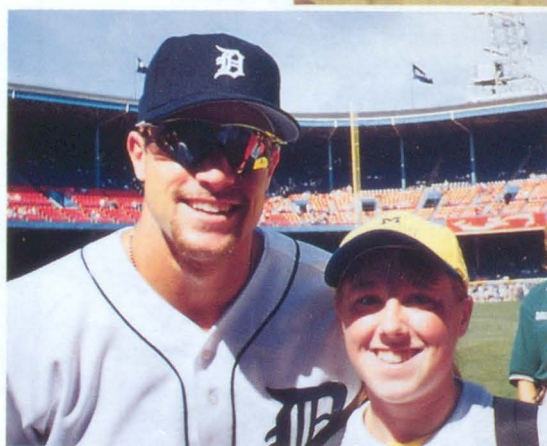

Student Life

Capac High School is a special place to be. You meet new people all throughout the years that you are here. There are either teachers or students who have changed your life forever, and hopefully, you too, have altered someone's life, in a good way.

Each person is unique and special. Capac will always cherish its memories of all the people who graduate from our school. Many students have moved up to colleges and universities. All of them have had big dreams and bright futures.

Capac High School is the center of many teenagers' lives. Everyone knows that is where all the best times are. With all our friendships and spirit, we will continue to make CHS a special place!

memories

Every student at Capac is different. We all have different friends and like to do different things. Some people play sports, some have jobs, and some are in clubs. When we look back on our high school years we probably won't remember everything we learned in class. What we will remember most are the good times: being with friends and having fun. From the first day of eighth grade all the way to graduation we each have special moments we will never forget.

"My favorite part of high school would probably be the extracurricular activities like clubs and athletics. I think they have played a big part in who I am today."

Best Friends

What could be better than making lasting memories at Capac High School? How about sharing those memories with a best friend! A best friend is someone you can laugh with, cry to, or just be yourself around. Best friends let you cut in line at lunch or save you a seat in class. These are people who help you enjoy your days here at Capac High School.

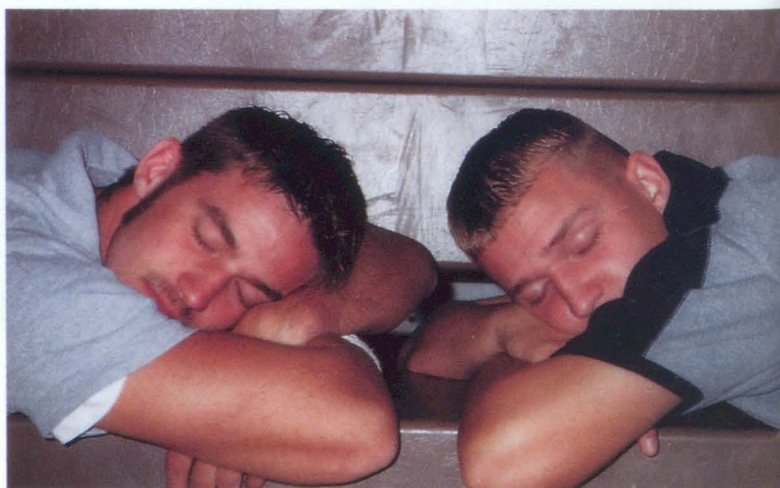

8th grade best friends, Cassie Quandt and Christina Hintz show their close relationship with a tight hug.

Megan Cutcher is so nice to her best friend, Lindsey Tonkin. She buys her a cupcake then smashes it in her face.

Amanda Palmateer puts an arm around her best friend, Nicole Gresell, as a sign of friendship.

Juniors Brian Greenia and Mike Ballerini were asked "What is best about your friendship?" Their reply "ZZZZZ".

Stefanie Konyha and Angela Kozak give their best smiles because they are best friends.

Stephanie Doutry can't think of anyone better than her best friend, Christine Felek, to lean on.

homecoming

doing our best

Julie Pelak may have said it best when she said, "the best part of homecoming was hanging out and getting crazy with my friends (yeah right) during spirit week and at the dance." Spirit week brings out the wildest part of everybody at Capac High. It's an annual event that centers around the homecoming football game. It gives them a chance to let loose and just have some fun. Sure, our royalty looked good in every way, but you have to admit that there were some kids during the week that did their best to look good, too. No matter how hard they tried everyone was bound to have fun. Our team won the football game, the Juniors and the Freshman won the pep assembly, and Ms. Misner's class won the spirit jug. There was just no escaping it. It was the BEST!

2 Seniors

You don't want none

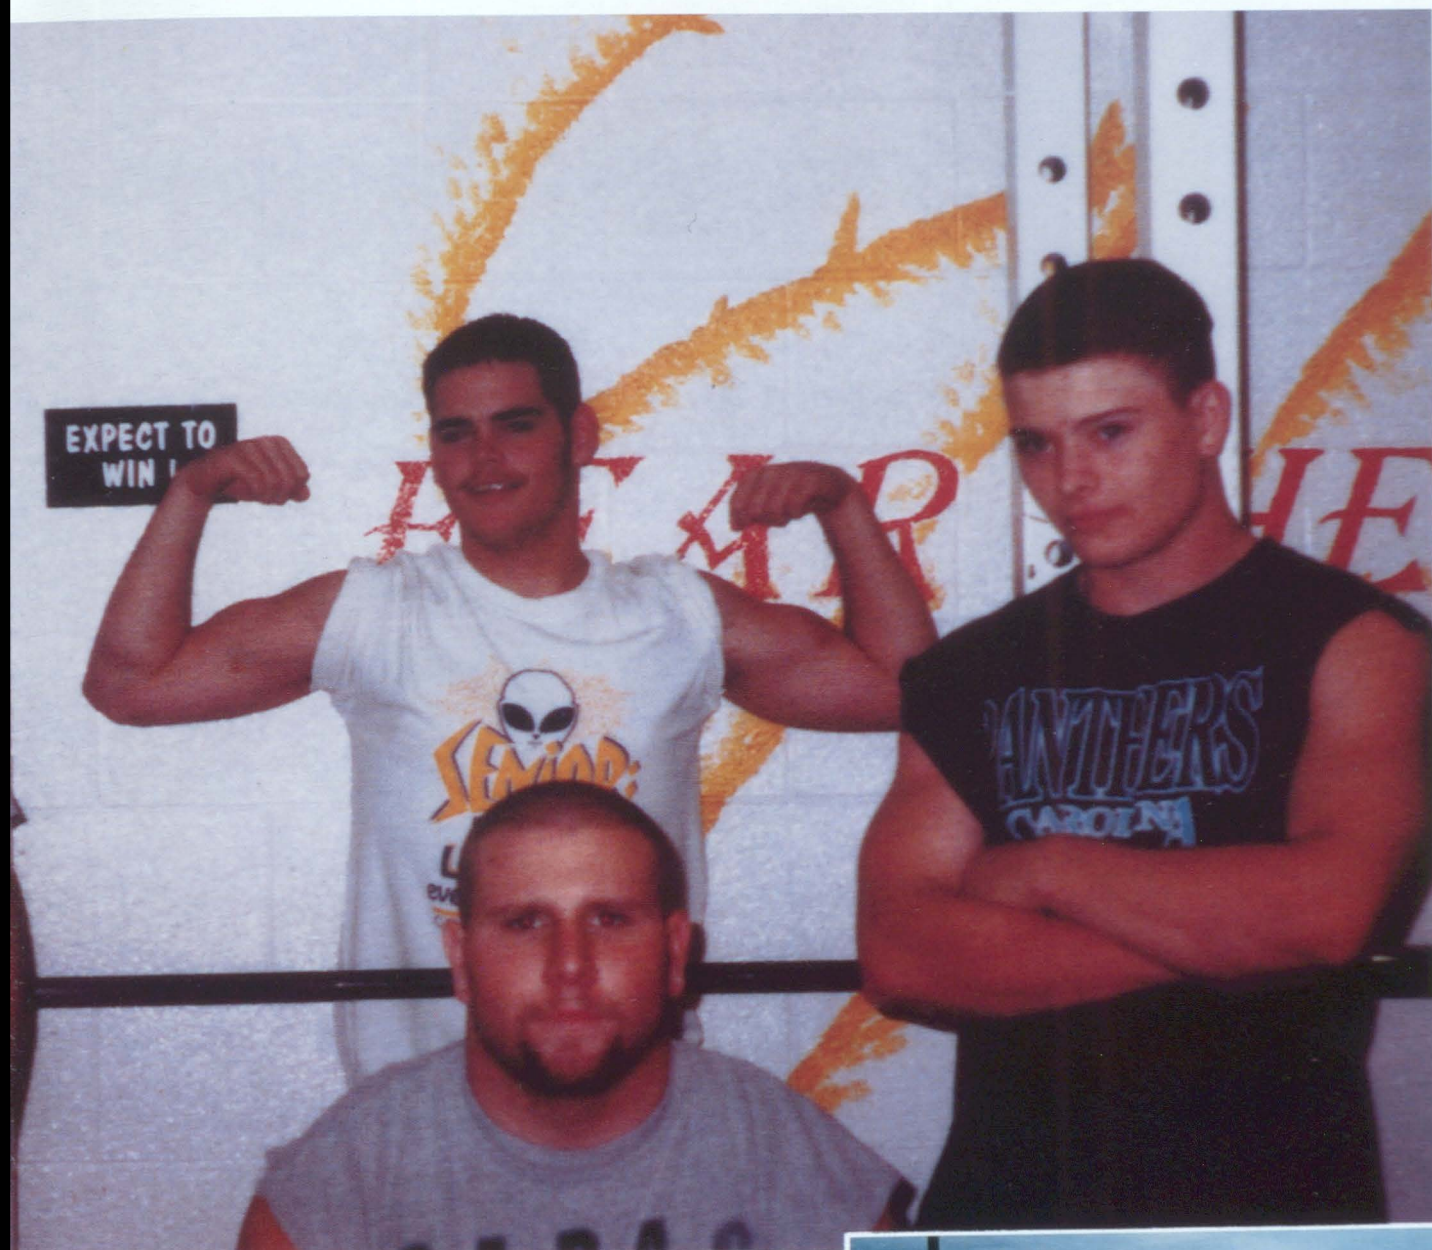

We finally made it, all of our hard work is paying off we are now seniors, ready to graduate!

Becoming a senior at Capac High was something many of us thought of when we were younger, trying to figure out how old you would be when you graduate, 17 or 18? It all seemed like a fantasy--something that was so far away and would take so long to get to--but here we are. We have been through a lot, from those unforgettable stories that Mr. Marzka told, to the last walk as the class of 2000. Those are all things that we will miss when we are out on our own and in the real world.

Wild stories and tall tales of feats that we accomplished will stay in our minds forever. Everyone has their own view of Capac High. We have laughed, "Bob did you find what you were looking for?" We have cheered and cried. Life here at Capac High was fun and definitely unforgettable for all. I hope that we will all remember and treasure the memories made by the class of 2000.

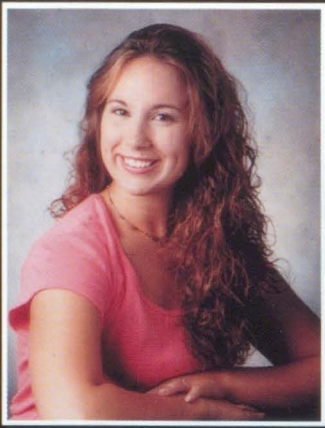

"I'm gonna go crazy, get me out of here." yells Mark Mandeville.

Academics

Giving Our Best

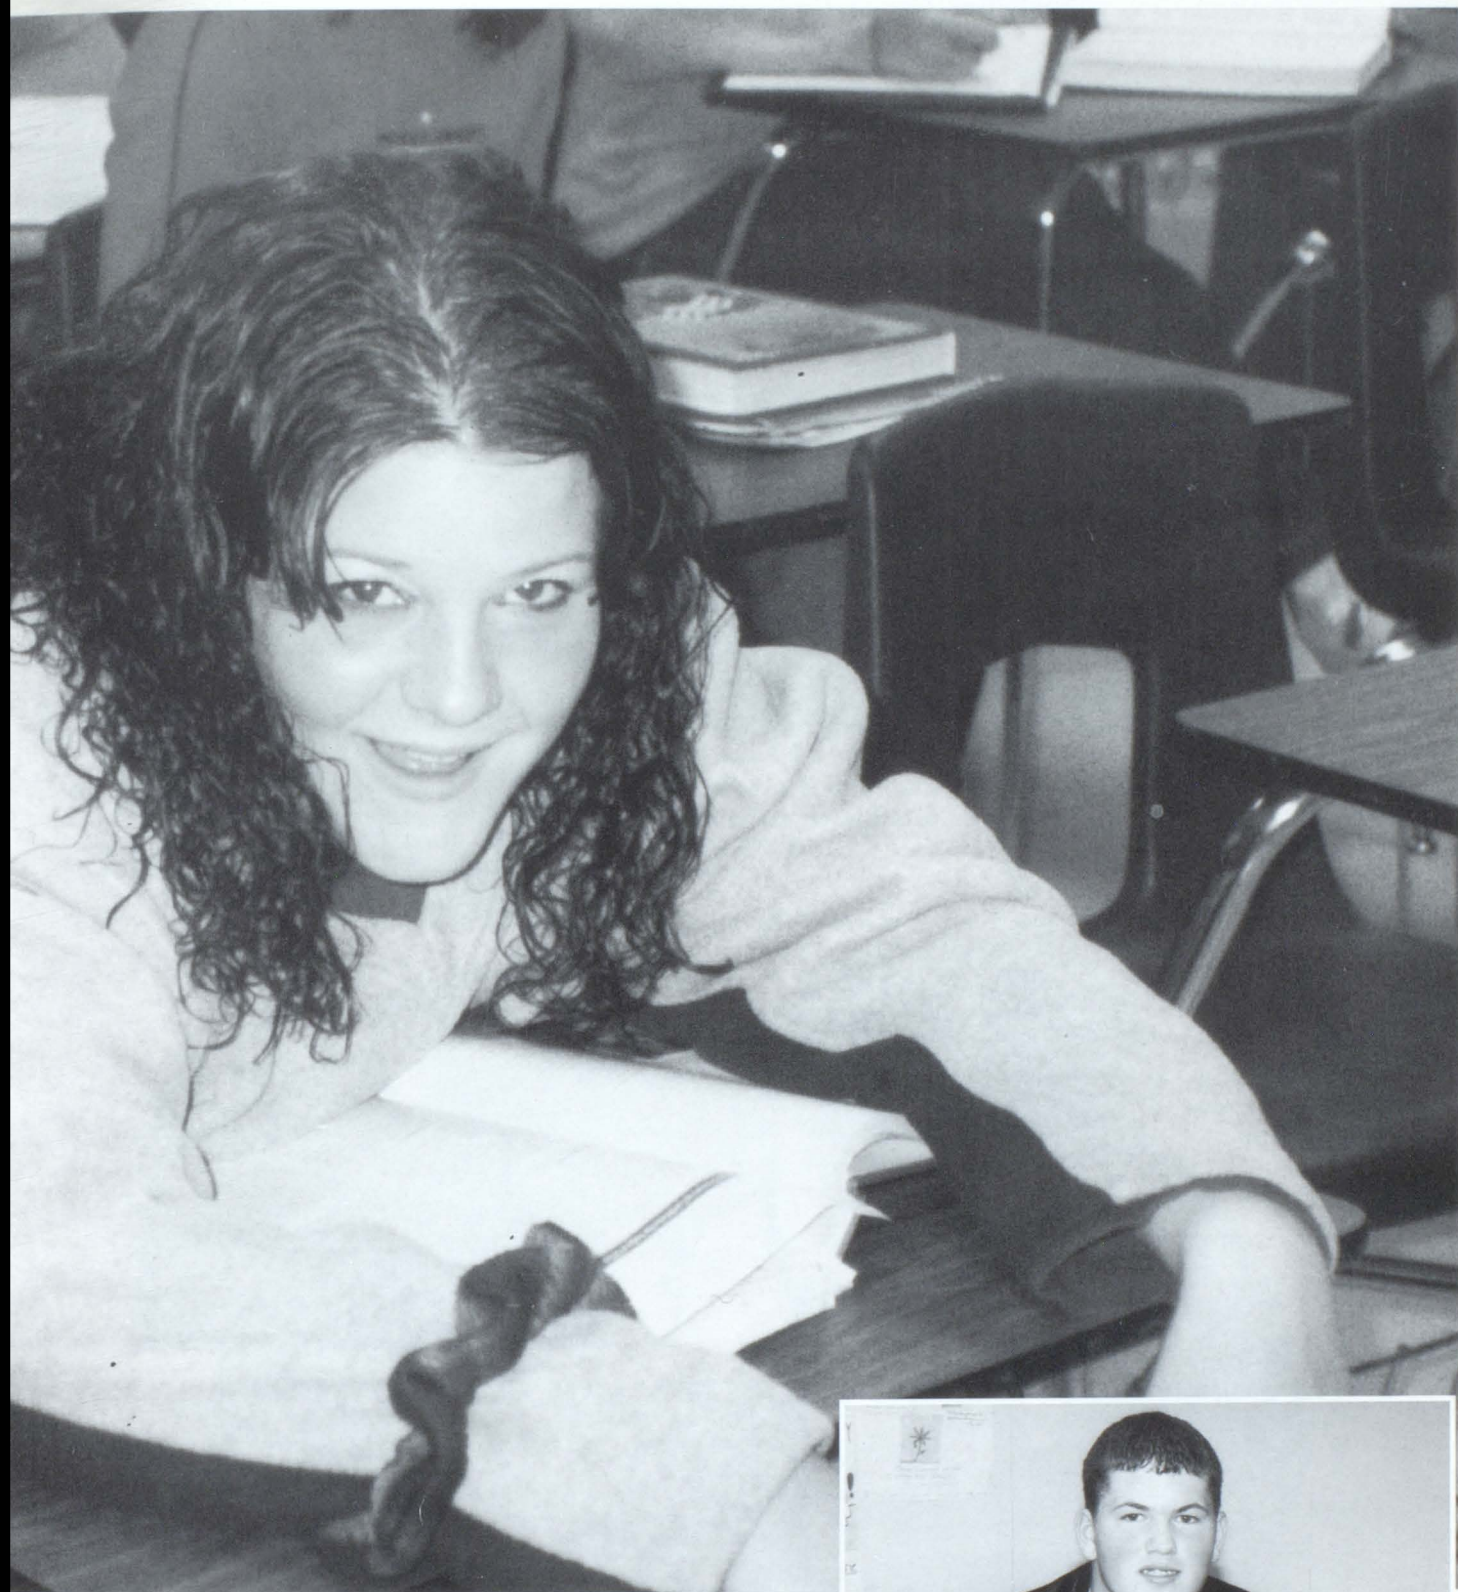

Academics is a time for making the grade. Nothing else takes precedence over what has to be done in the classroom. From the lectures, to the experiments, we all work our hardest to do our very best. Sure, we may have jobs or play sports, but we always have to study for that history test or that little thing called a "popquiz" that just may pop up!

As Francis Bacon once said, "Studies serve for delight, for ornament, and for ability." The ability to play a sport is just like the ability to learn. You have to learn all the moves or the vocabulary words. Academics can be a delight, no matter what the subject. Once you have learned all the moves, you can face your opponent, either the other school or the tests! Finally, but not least, the ornament of studies is what you put on that resume and show to a future employer.

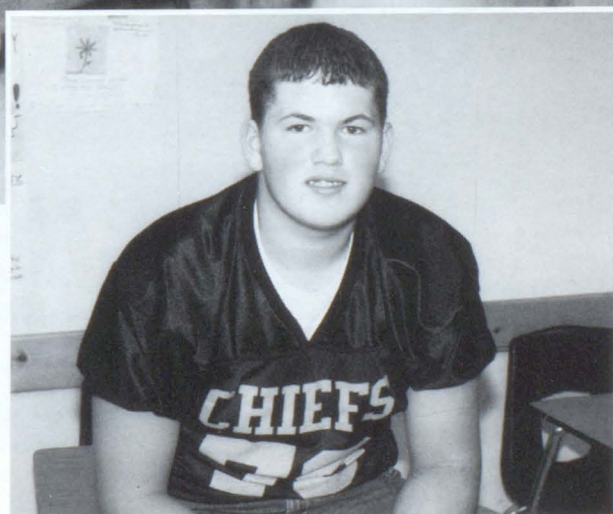

So go out and excel in whatever classes you may take!

Coming From Far Away Places

Coming from places all over the world to discover the American culture are the foreign exchange students. We hosted four exchange students this year. The Lentz family hosted Monica Pauta from Ecuador. The Campau family hosted Simone Bartens from Germany. The Sawicki family hosted Michiel De Doelder from the Netherlands. The Camire family hosted Nicola Pithan from Germany. It is a very big decision to live in another country, with total strangers for eleven months.

Each of the exchange students had something different to say about the American culture, whether it was the same kind of food they eat or if the sports at school are different. The thing most exchange students worry about is if they will fit into the American culture as well as their own. They also don't want to forget how to speak the language of their own country. They may even worry about how they are going to adapt to the changes when they go back to their country. No matter what, their memories from 1999-2000 will stay with them forever.

Would you ever want to be an exchange student? If you want to see what it's like to live in another country you can talk to Mrs. Campau, or one of the organizations that are involved with exchange students.

Here are all of the exchange students with their host brothers and sisters.

The exchange students are proud to show where they live on a globe.

Class Time

Best Time of the Day

School has many different components, but one thing ties them all together; our classes. Classes here in Capac are never dull. There is always something going on. Reports, assignments, essays, teachers always find a way to keep students busy. And students aren't just focused on their homework. Somehow, in such a busy day, everyone still has to find time to talk with friends, pass notes, and catch up on some much needed Zzzz's! And almost everyone has some other activity to keep them busy, whether it's a fundraiser for NHS or making posters for the team, so it's easy to get side-tracked from the reason we're all here; our classes! But even with the fun of being around all our friends and the joy of schoolwork, everyone is glad when they hear one thing. The final bell!

TEC...

The Alternative Way

TEC is a rapidly expanding aspect of the educational experience at Capac High School. It is more than just a few easy credits, it is an opportunity to receive hands-on training in a wide range of popular careers. Nursing, culinary arts, cosmetology, mechanical training, and business are just a few of the many options available to those who attend TEC.

Students may also choose to participate in the co-op program. Through this option, students gain real life work experience in the subject they are studying, while still in high school. This enables the students to land a quality job just after graduation, or have a head start in the college program of their choice.

Central Office

Always on Top

When you are employed at a school, your job is never complete. There are always students to work with or tasks to complete to make school a better place. The pictures below show different jobs that all the office team has to do from time to time. Mr. Baker is pictured below hanging out monitoring traffic in the main hallway. Dr. Gualdoni is showing that he has pride and respect for Capac athletics (he's at every game). Mr. Remenap on the other hand, is on the phone describing to a parent what their son/daughter did wrong. They are all doing typical tasks required in the jobs that they love.

Superintendent: Mark Gualdoni

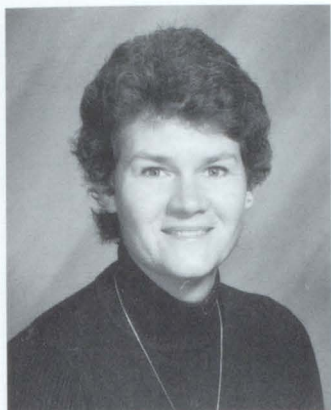

Principal: Joe Remenap

Assistant Principal: Richard Baker

The ladies in the central office have one common task -- working with the student body. Pictured below is Mrs. Malburg smiling pretty to show the parents as they enter that she loves working with teenagers. While Mrs. Wright smiles and asks "Do you have permission to leave?" Mrs. Miller is calling home to see if the child is sick or skipping. Mrs. Palmateer looks at the camera and asks "Where is my aide? I need her to deliver a message." Each secretary has their own importance, but all four of them enjoy their job at Capac High School.

Time To Show our Appreciation

Just as students are tumbling out of bed, the cooks are getting together our lunches, may it be salads, pizza, or sandwiches, they are working as fast as they can to get all that has to be done to be ready for us. Not many of us say thank-you or just smile at them to show our appreciation of what they do for us, each and every day of the 180, or so, days that we are here. We just grumble, complain, or just stand in their way as they are trying to get food for us. So a big thank-you from the students at Capac High School!

Teacher's Aide

Giving Our Best

"Copy this, correct papers, make phone calls!" That is the first thing that teacher aides hear the minute they step into the class or the office. These students are regularly running errands. They are a huge support to the teachers. The teachers are saved a lot of headache, but guess who has the headache now!

Capac High Staff

Could they be any Nicer?

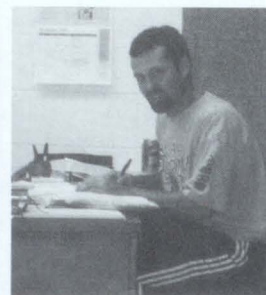

Mr. Lengemann gives the teaching staff at Capac High a big thumbs up!

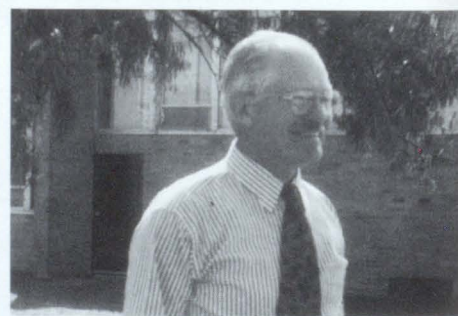

I don't think that you are supposed to be laughing when you're teaching your lesson Mr. Glennie.

Aren't you supposed to be looking at the papers when you're checking them Mr. Topie?

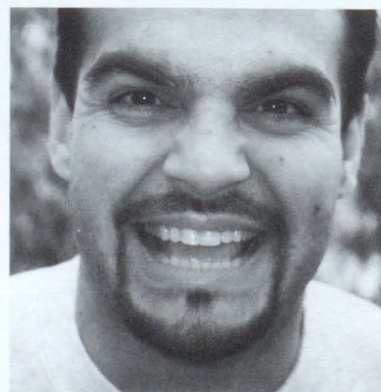

Mr. Marzka smiles as he teaches his students how to run around the parking lot.

Watch out Mr. Young, it still might be alive.

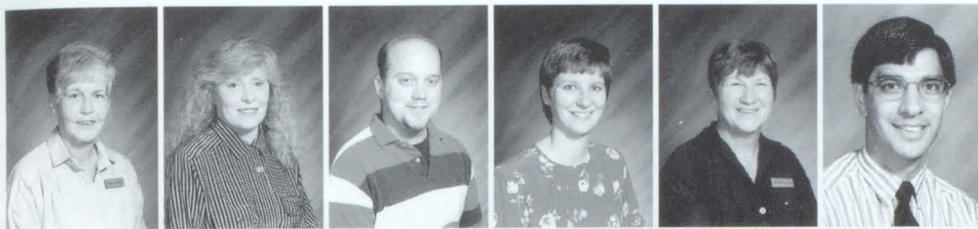

Hey Mr. Cutler, aren't you supposed to be the teacher, not John Litwin?

Mr. Sampson shows just how happy he is to be able to teach all the eager students.

Undergrads

Best Memories

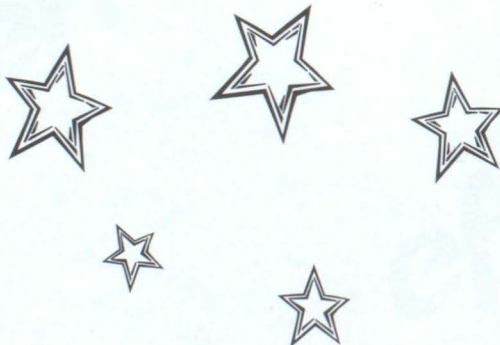

As Laurence Shames once stated, "Success and failure. We think of them as opposites, but they're really not. They're companions--the hero and the sidekick." Though we may not admit it, failure plays a major role in our success. We are at a time in our lives where we are deciding our future paths. As we look forward to graduation, we also look back on the best times we had as undergrads. For example, spirit week, sports, Mr. Huss's quotes, the new McDonald's, and French class.

As the years continue we will remember the better times we had. Our memories of Capac High School will be Nothing Less Than the Best.

High School

Here we come everyday,
In search of our own way.
Giving our all to win,
Having the strength to begin

Staying awake in class,
Choosing ones we can pass.
Heading out on our own,
Out in the world alone.
Once we're gone we will miss,
Living life, simple as this.

The Day You Live

Up and out at the crack of dawn
The window shows the gold
Just to stand out on the lawn
Which always seems so cold.

Sitting on a frozen bus
And talking to a friend
Watching the houses rolling by
Waiting for the ride to end.

To all your friends you say hello
Getting ready for the day
You talk to that special guy or girl
You hang on what they say.

Sixth hour finally rolls around
You see the students run
They gather all their school-day gear
The day is finally done.

Truth is there
Whether you want to See it or not

Through the lies
That you have made
Make you regret

You will try and lie, and say it's true

You should have

1st Hour with Winarski

What can I say? Its pretty fun.
Talking during journal time is never done.
The students in here are pretty cool.
They're why we have fun in school.
Where do I begin? It's hard to pick.
Maybe I'll start with a kid named Stick.
A quiet guy and kind of small.
When he gets older he'll be 6 foot tall.
Then there's Joe, the "Ladies Man."
Can you resist him? Nobody can.
But what about Carl, the dirtbike freak?
Whose signature is quite unique.
Or what about Greg, the athletic boy?
Who's very smart and extremely coy.
Also there's Mike, he's outta wack.
All he needs is a pretty good smack.
Eddie comes to mind when Superman is said,
Ed, you aren't Superman get it through your head.
Well there's Matt, the hockey kid,
He's been checked twice and look what it did.
Last, but not least, there's the big smart dude,
Yes, Tom's way of being nice is by being rude.
So you've got the guys who like Britney Spears,
And the teacher who likes the 49ers' rears.
Well that sums up our first hour,
The other classes are boring and sour.

ORGANIZATIONS

nothing less than everything

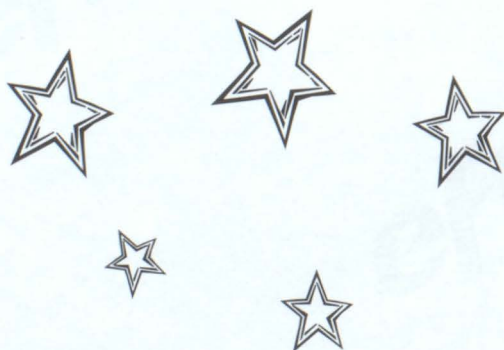

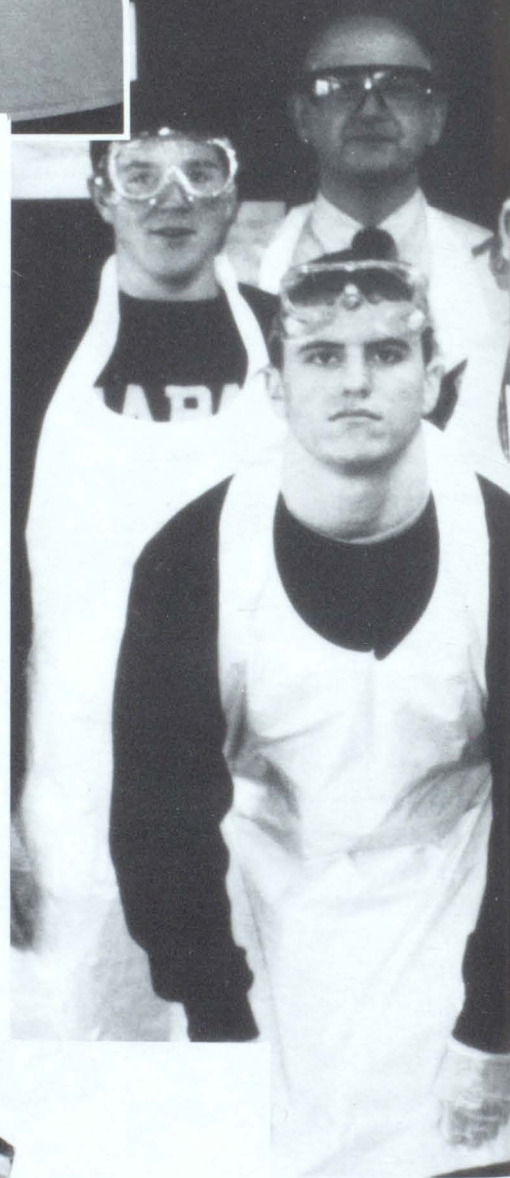

Organization: what comes to your mind whenever you hear this word? Teamwork, effort, and lots of fun are just a few of the things you might think of.

The key to success is organization. These clubs are all about working together, striving for one main goal, and supporting each other along the way.

Joining a club is a great learning experience. Everyone is in unison. You learn dedication to yourself and your dreams. Your self-esteem rises and you feel better about yourself.

Clubs are very focused on volunteering time for others. If it's for your co-members, or for the needy of your community, Club members are giving people!

Participating in a club is at times a stressful experience, with everyone preparing for competition. But in the end, it all comes down to making new friends and having lots of fun!

The Capac 1999-2000 Sr. High Band started the year off with a bang! The band began their marching season one week before school started at their annual band camp, where all the new freshmen learned how to march and all the experienced upper classmen reviewed their skills. The Marching Chiefs went on to march at all of the home football games, including the play-offs. The band also attended the Central Michigan University Band Day, where they marched with hundreds of other students at a CMU half-time show. The pep band also played at all of the Home basketball games this year showing once again that the band is full of school pride and spirit. The annual Christmas Benefit show was a success this year and the band was one of the many great performances at the event. The band ended the year with a trip to Toronto. This fun event brought the band together and was also a great learning experience, due to the fact that they attended a clinic at a Canadian University where they learned about music, the subject most of them like best. The last band performance was at this year's senior graduation ceremony. Here the band said good-bye to the senior members, playing with them one last time, but remembered this year when the band played the best beats.

one of the best

After twenty four years of teaching and coaching at Capac Jr./Sr. High School, Mr. Ken Marzka decided it is time to retire. He has taught everything from physical education to American History to World Cultures. He has been the head coach of the football, basketball, track, and cross country teams. Mr. Marzka said, "It's hard to pin point highlights of my career as one great bunch of kids after another has passed through my life." Speaking as a teacher Mr. Marzka said, "I am very proud that so many of my students have become a success in life. I have great feelings when my kids come back to see me, expressing appreciation for the way things were done in the classroom. I have real regrets for the large number of kids who have been killed in accidents and I hurt for the few who have taken the wrong path in life. I am going to miss helping kids get ready for their future. All in all I hope the next phase of my life is as rewarding as this has been."

- * Fall Leadership Seminar
- * Regional conference
- * Make-A-Difference Day

This year, the Capac Student Council has accomplished a lot! Like every year they planned Homecoming and Snowcoming. They also held a Christmas food and clothing drive, helped with the student of the month board, and held a conference with the middle school student Council Members. Some Student Council members had a chance to travel to St. Clair Community College for the annual Fall Leadership conference, and Lansing for the Regional Conference this year. The Student Council officers for the 1999-2000 year were: President Phillip Wellman, Vice President Laura Lentz, Treasurer Katie Kolaczynski, Recording Secretary Katie Smith, and Corresponding Secretary Erica Ray. The officers and other council members are hard at work, even when school is out for the summer, by running a booth at the Capac Summer Festival for the young children of the community. It surely has been a busy and rewarding year for all the the members on the Capac High school Student Council.

Student Council: Favorite Memories

Laura Lentz:

"I have many favorite Student Council memories. Every Monday and Wednesday with Mr. Cutler and the Student Council gang is exciting and fullfilling!"

Easter Activity

Student Council members Jennifer Ramage, Robin Jones, Chris Brooks, Phillip Wellman, and Erica Ray work hard. They are planning on making Easter baskets and dispersing them to the young children and elderly people in the community.

Student Council members Stephanie Skuratowicz, and Katie Kolaczynski demonstrate their excitement for the Halloween costume contest put on by the student council. What are you going to be Stephanie? A lion, tiger, bear...

Erica Ray:

"Phil Wellman, Meghan Lewis, and I were decorating the Student of the month board and Phil fell through the glass! It now seems so funny."

Mr.Cutler:

"The conferences were great and helpful."

-The FFA Motto

As the school's largest organization, with 129 members, the FFA proves to be the best. From leadership conferences, and public speaking competitions to landjudging and poultry production, the FFA has a vast range of activities.

The members will always remember their times in FFA as nothing less than the best. Attending MSU and watching the Spartans Hockey Team practice, swimming, checking out the hotties, and working hard to beat the Lakers.

The officer team this year did a terrific job in recruiting new members, and proving that FFA is fun! They made sure that at every meeting, great games known as "Icebreakers" were played. A special thanks to the sentinel, Katrina Campau, for putting these on.

Surely, as the years progress, the FFA will remain a dominant part of Capac High School. No one will ever forget the times they had or the friends they made, it was the best.

Look at the the two different organizations bonding with each other.

The SADD organization inspires many students not to drink and drive. SADD is a very good organization for all young people to be involved in. One activity they participated in was red ribbon week, where they put red ribbons on the cars of students and the teaching staff to inspire people not to drink and drive. They also hold a very good message for all the people not to drink and drive at prom because many peoples' lives will be taken by one drunk driver. If you do go to a party make sure you have a designated driver.

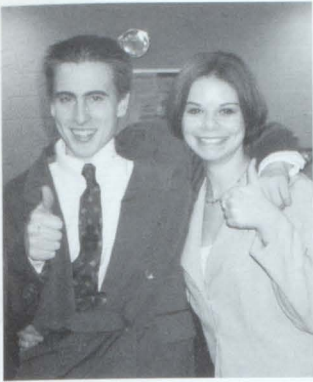

In the beginning of the year the members select a group of members to lead SADD. The advisors for the SADD organization are Mrs. Winarski and Mrs. Lamay. The president of SADD is Stephanie Skuratowicz, vice-president is Jessica O'Neil, secretary is Phillip Wellman, treasurer is Crystal Blumerich, and student council representative is Christina Leigh.

Choir

Choir is one of the only classes that all the students' voices can be heard. This is a real freedom, and that is why many students like choir above all the other classes in their daily schedule.

Choir is a class of students' voices coming together to make harmony. The students come together five times a week-sometimes more-to tune their voices, their instruments, in order to bring a smile to our faces as we listen to them at their shows and concerts.

The Benefit Show and Dinner Theatre are the choir's main goals of the year. They work towards making them happen and making the shows great for everyone's delight. They contribute the money from the Benefit Show for the needy every year. Capac should be proud of all the achievements of their choir!

Quiz Bowl the best buzz in school

The future contestants on "Who Wants to be a Millionaire".

This year's Quiz bowl team was made up of members from every grade. With both new and old members the team was a unique blend. The differences of the members was very helpful because in quiz bowl there can be some very different questions. The team competed with larger schools, such as Algonac, Marysville, Port Huron Northern, Port Huron High, St. Clair, and Yale. In no way was the Capac team intimidated and they always did their best.

This year's members were: Kyle Radtke, Marek Sawicki, Michael Gebbi, and Mary Obarzanek (first year members), Matt Senkow, Amanda Wallen, Erica Ray, Alice Paluch, and Stephanie Skuratowicz (second year members), A.J. Durand, and Phillip Wellman (third year members). Every member agreed that this was a fun and memorable season, and that is their final answer!

*Students Helping

Community.*

The Four County Community Foundation was founded in 1986 by a small group of dedicated citizens. funding for this endeavor was provided by the sale of the Community Hospital located in Almont. In this transition of hospital to foundation, the same service area was kept. That service area, which is still in place today encompasses parts of St.

Clair, Lapeer, Macomb, and Oakland counties (hence the name 4-county). Since that time, the foundation has grown to almost $30 million. It has taken amazing strides in giving back to the community. From concerts in the park to mini-grants for local teachers, the Four County Community Foundation has made an impact in almost every aspect of our lives. Each year, funding is given to support the arts, service projects, education, health and more. Since its beginning, the foundation has given over $1.5 million in grants and scholarships.

looking back on the Pals program

This year has been a very exciting time for the Pals program. With the allowance of 8th and 9th graders into the program, the number of students has doubled this year as opposed to last year. In the Pals program, high school students are paired up with young students and then meet with the students every week. The high school student is to help their Pal with homework, reading, and other scholastic activities. One of a Pal's main goals in the time that they visit with their Pal is to become a friend and mentor. The Pals program also takes an out of school field trip which is usually to the circus. Of the many wonderful things that the Pals program is involved in, the most important to the young students is that they get to have a friend and a mentor.

Hola! The 1999-2000 Spanish Club has been a diversion from our classes. The year started out with a Spanish luncheon. Everyone made something that was Spanish. At the Spanish luncheon, some of the Spanish club students broke open a piñata. Then we took a couple of trips. The first one was to Don Pablos, in Sterling Heights. The second was a trip to the Detroit Institute of the Arts. We also had a senior luncheon, where this years 13 seniors were given certificates for completing two or three years of Spanish.

The 1999-2000 Spanish Club officers consisted of four seniors and one junior. Monica Fielitz as President, Stephanie Skuratowicz as Vice-President, Jennifer Ramage as Secretary, Melissa Patterson as Treasurer, and Shana Spencer as Student Council Rep.

STA BEST

The athletes at Capac High School have a great deal to be proud of. These players proved their hard work and persistence through practice, school, and games. Whether it means coming to practice day or practicing in summer, the athletes are dedicated. It all pays off with a victory. The team ended the 3rd STA title season with their varsity football team. The girls' basketball team amazed us all when they became the District Champions. Every athlete has a talent to be proud of, but only a Capac athlete has a victory to prove it.

The Capac Chiefs High School Football Team had yet another spectacular season. The Chiefs captured their third straight STA title, having only two losses for the year. Marty Miller, Justin Whitehead, and Justin Gresell captained the team to nine wins. The underclassmen were a strong force on the team this year, so look forward to a fourth winning season next year. According to Coach Glennie, "The 1999 football season was a great success. Our team worked very hard and accomplished our goal of '3-peat' as STA Champions. I'm very proud of the effort put forth by these young men. They are true champions."

Cheering For The Best

There were twelve girls on the Varsity Cheerleading team this year. These girls worked very hard to keep their muscles toned. Even summer didn't stop these girls from thinking about cheerleading. Each of the girls attended two summer camps. During practice they kicked and punched to the extremely tough and fun TAE-BO workout.

The varsity cheerleaders just love stunting and cheering at the pep assemblies.

These girls were always keeping the football players in good spirits. New locker signs were colored and placed on the players' lockers each week. A popsicle or gatorade was provided by the cheerleaders on Thursdays after the guys' practice. On game days each player received candy and a card wishing them good luck in the upcoming game.

The girls were always having fun. When one football practice ran extra long the girls had a great time toilet papering the boys' cars.

The girls had so much pride and faith in the football team. They cheered on the sidelines of every game. When the weather got cold the players could still count on the cheerleaders to be cheering them to victory. These girls worked hard and provided tons of support for what turned out to be a great season.

Fun and hard work is what the J.V. Cheerleaders had to do this season. Although having fun made all the work worthwhile.

There was a new addition to the team, two guys. John Crandall and Doug Gramby showed their strength when they lifted the girls. With the fourteen people on the team, it made their stunts higher and voices louder.

For these future Varsity Cheerleaders this is one more stepping stone they have surpassed. All their hard work is definitely paying off. This is the one season the team will never forget.

Freshman Football...

As Capac embarked on its first freshman football season ever, it promised to be a successful one. They encountered their first and only loss in the season opener against a J.O. team. With the first game forgotten, the team soared to new heights as they created an undefeated season from then on. At the helm of the offense was Quarterback Jared Spiller who led the team to many big plays. Geno Mallo aided in the outcome of the season as he led the team in rushing. Coaches Gerred Roehring and Dave Mineau guided their team along the way as coaches. We Congratulate the freshmen football team on a stellar inaugural season!

Senior Athletes...

A person's Senior year is an ending to a childhood career. For some Seniors it is more than an ending to a scholastic career but an ending to an athletic one as well. After years of hard work and hours of sweaty practice their athletic dynasty comes to an abrupt end. Some may be privileged enough to continue on to college but for most it will be the last time they are able to compete.

Capac Athletes gain many skills while they play their sports. When they look back and think about what they have gained numerous things come into their minds. The leadership skills they have gained that will be invaluable to them, the will to succeed.

When these Seniors graduate they take something with them that they will remember for the rest of their lives.

When gathered at a reunion they will talk about their triumphs and also the defeats. As they talk they will all feel the pride of being a Capac athlete.

Trying Our Best...

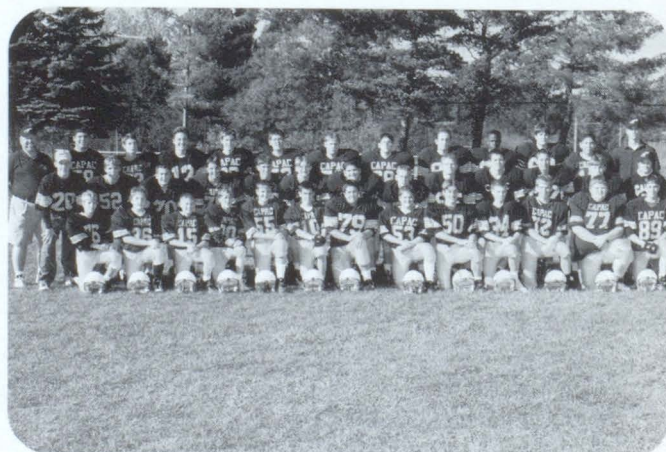

As eighth graders, these football players have a big task ahead of them--to fill the shoes of our Varsity football team. As we all know, with determination and hard work they should be able to pull it off. They tried their best to do their best, and have proved to themselves and to others that they can and will be our next STA Champs.

Nothing Less Than...

The Lady Chiefs celebrate after beating Memphis 52-46 for the District Championship.

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

This was a great defensive team- only two teams scored 50 or more points. It was a very close and together team. We came a long way from game one.
- Coach Topie

As the final seconds expired, the members of the Oarsity Girls Basketball team ran to center court in jubilation. They had just won the Class C District Championship, topping off an incredible season. They finished 20-4, 14-2 in the STA, on their way to Capac's first District Title in nine years and a Sweet 16 berth. The Championship game was a tight one, but the team used tough "D" to defeat Memphis 52-46. As well as a team accomplishment, the game was Coach Topie's 100th Career win.

Their success didn't stop there. The Lady Chiefs upset Deckerville 48-45 (OT) in the Regional Semi-Final Game. There were 16 Class C teams left and Capac was one of them. They had a season to remember, proving they were Champions!

Riding With Style

This year's equestrian team improved so much from last year. With two meets far away on homecoming weekend, staying awake was a challenge but the team pulled away with more points than ever. The school is recognizing the sport more than ever and the equestrian team is proud to represent Capac.

Dana and Cheyenne are excited to be there.

#1 Cheer Team

Alyssa Giroux, Dana Potter, & Devon Gundalch love wearing curlers to school for competition.

This years competitive cheerleading squad rose above the challenge and won STA. These girls set a goal at the beginning of the year to be a winning team, their hard work paid off. This is the first year ever for Capac to win the STA cheer competition. The smiles on their faces were so bright they could have brightened a darkened room. Having their fans there to help cheer them boosted their confidence so much. "We couldn't have done it without our fans, looking into the crowd and seeing that our school finally supported us was awesome!", says Dana Potter. This years Competitive Cheer team will certainly never be forgotten.

Hoopin' it up...

A lot of hard work and dedication brought this year's JO basketball team through a winning season. This season helped some of these boys develop the much needed skills that will in turn help them succeed on next year's Varsity team. Some of the players will be back on the JO team next year and the experience they gained this year will allow them to teach the new coming players just what it takes to compete at this level of play. This is the time in every player's career when they practice and perfect their dribbling, passing, shooting, and all around working as a team. The hard work put in by this team brought improvement and confidence to all the players involved. They ended up 13-7 overall but lost three games by a total of only 4 points. Coach Moore said "This season was an educational season for the team and they passed with flying colors!!!"

Eighth Grade Basketball

This year the eighth grade boys basketball and girls cheerleaders did an excellent job proving they were the best Capac High School had to offer. This year the boys had a new coach, Mr. Troy Schneider. He proved that even though he was a rookie coach, he still knew how to play the game. The boys ended the season with eleven wins and one loss!

Luke Stuever proved to be the leading scorer with 80 points for the season. Peter Browning closely followed with 77 points. Scott Dotson had a free throw record of eight for eight, and Cliff Patton had thirteen for fifteen.

Varsity Volleyball...

Janel Polzin goes up for a tip.

With seven returning players, the 2000 Varsity Volleyball team had experience and guts. The Lady Chiefs used hard work and determination to battle through injuries and finish 9-9 in the STA. A highpoint of the year was their 15-13, 15-4 upset of Richmond. They also advanced to the Bronze division at the St. Clair tournament. The team beat New Haven in the first round of Districts and lost a hard fought game to Almont in the semi-finals. Proving they are well-rounded, the Lady Chiefs received Academic All-State Honors.

Capac's Best...

The Junior Varsity Volleyball team was awesome this year! Ms. Misener, the rookie coach did a great job uniting the girls as a team. Overall they ended the season with eleven wins and five losses. The team started off the season with a win and ended it with the same unruly spirit. They also took first place at the Capac Tournament.

Jaclyn Palmateer served as team captain. Lisa Callewaert took stats and helped the team at all games. She proved to be a great help to the team.

The Freshmen Volleyball team had a fun season, and followed their coach's motto, "You play the way you practice." Next year they will progress even further to be nothing less than the best.

Track, the Best ...

The track season this year has been a season full of teamwork and personal bests. All runners, jumpers, and throwers, not only worked hard at their meets during the school week, but also gave up many weekends to represent Capac High School at track and field invitational. In Capac's first showing at the Port Huron Relay's, Capac boys placed 4th. And at the annual Marysville Invitational, Capac girls paced 5th.

Special Events

Fun Stuff

For many students, special events are the highlight of the year. They are a much needed break from homework and classes. This year was filled with many such events.

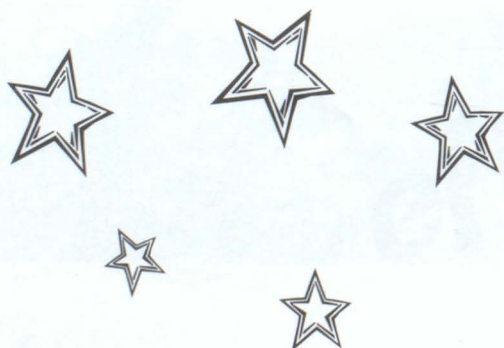

Make a Difference Day, the annual leaf raking celebration was once again a great success. There were more participants this year than any past year. The National Honor Society auctioned off students as servants to the highest bidder in the annual servant day auction. This annual event is growing in popularity and participation every year. The BPA once again held balloon sales and NHS painted faces at home football games.

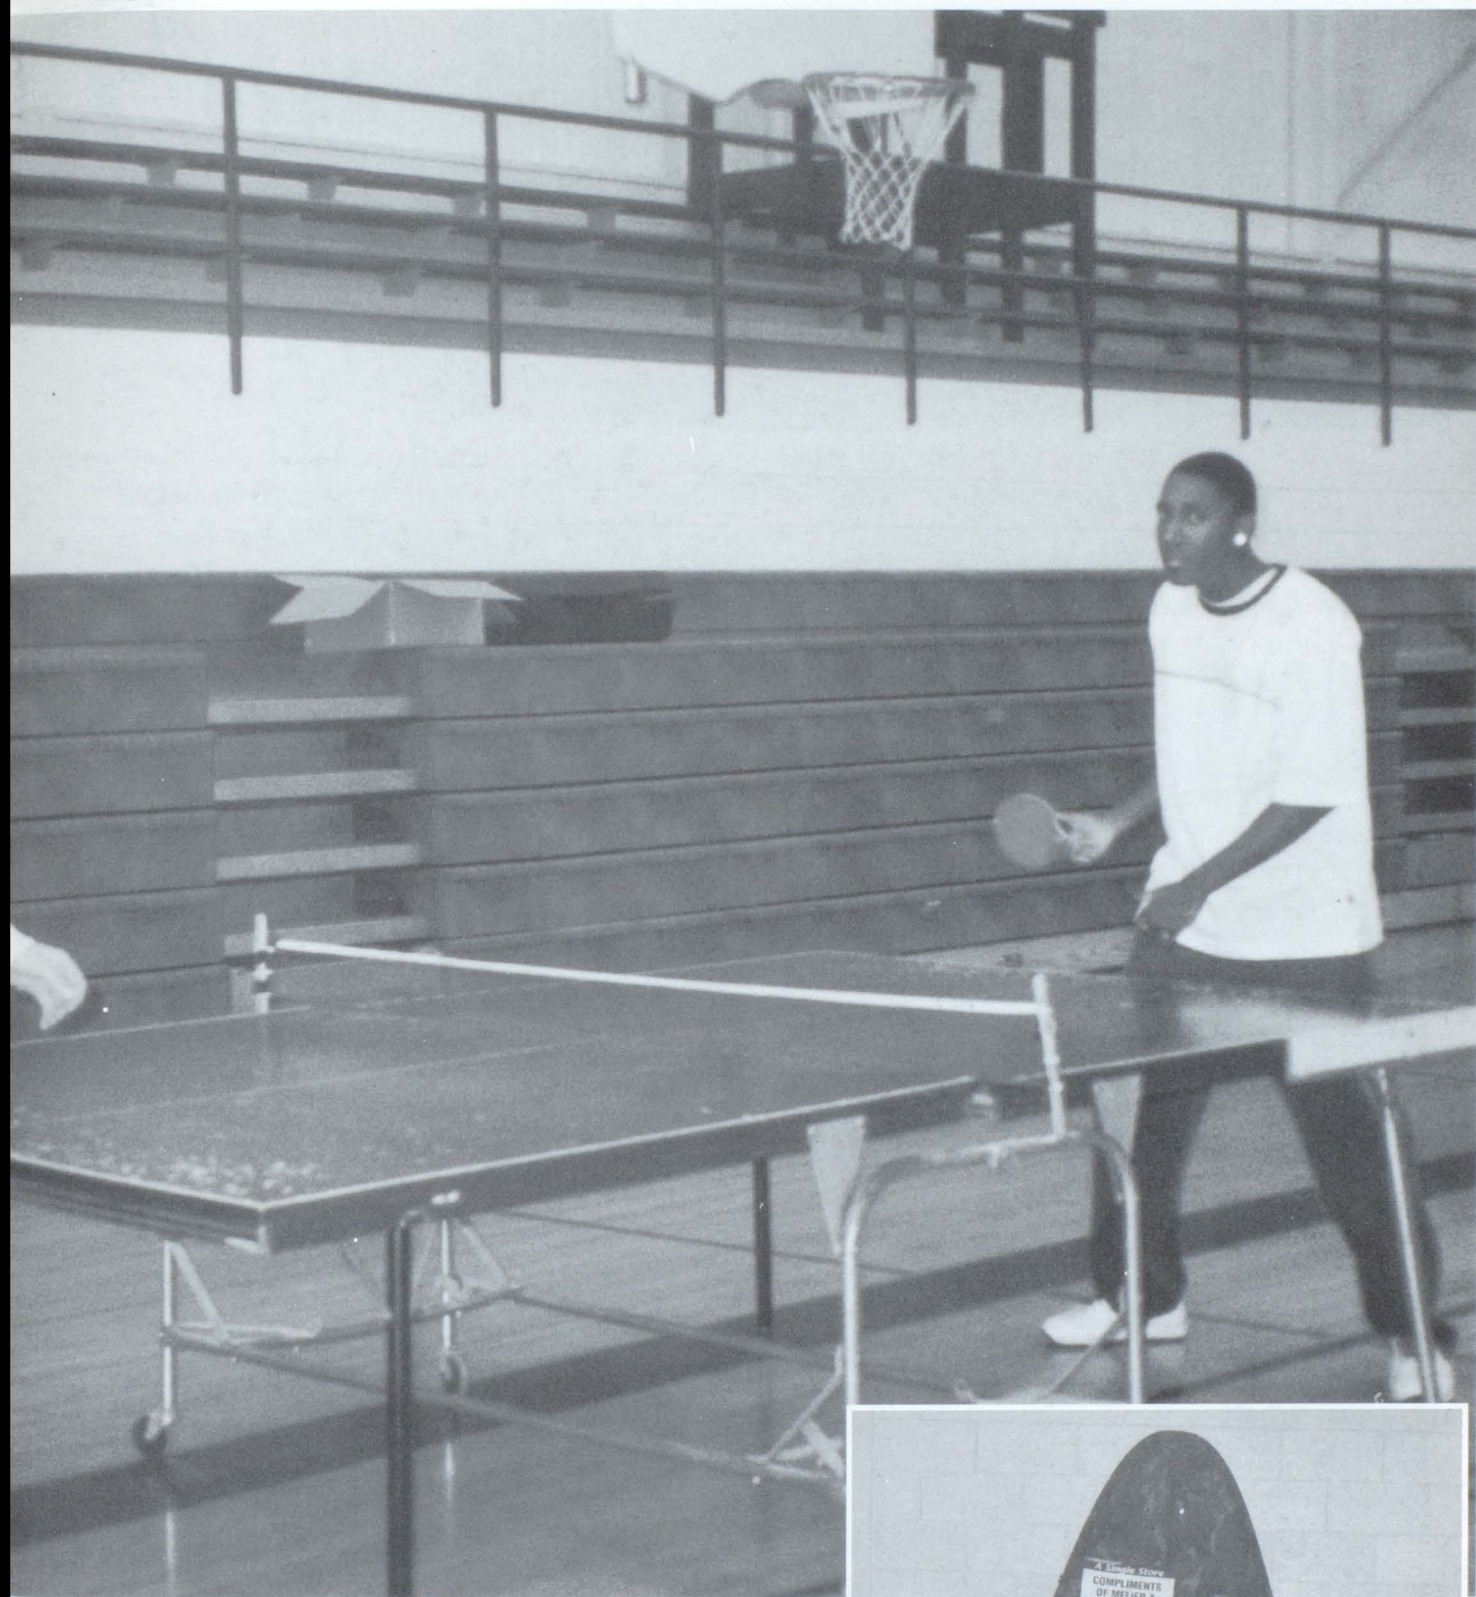

Mr. Remenap celebrated his last Plaid Shirt Night with a record number of displays and spectators. That event will be missed.

For the third consecutive year the football and wrestling teams had success in the post-season. This year's special events were highly successful, thanks to the students' participation.

The crowd cheers at a pep assembly.

Having fun at the last Plaid Shirt Night.

We're #1

A RECORD YEAR FOR CAPAC TEAMS

The new Millenium was greeted with a record setting year for '99-'00 team sports! The Oarsity football team coached by Coach Mike Glennie, Richard Baker, Jim Standeferer and Jason Klink and Matt Topie saw two games into the state playoffs . The Boys and Girls Basketball teams under the tutiledge of Coach John Topie, Tom Cambell, and Bill Lengemen saw Playoff action and our Oarsity Wrestling team sent Ryan Bullock and Justin Whitehead to the State Individual Meet with Coaches Tim Muldoon and Jason Klink.

CHIEF POWER

Make a difference day

Nothing More Special

Make a Difference Day is for helping our community. Faculty and students stay after school one day to rake the leaves of our communities' lawns. The students make the best out of this day working together for a more attractive community.

BOTTOM: Brian St. Onge takes care of the lawn the easy way, with a leaf blower.

TOP RIGHT: Nic Luellen, Lindsey Spencer, and Marek Sawicki are enjoying themselves while they work by tossing up leaves in the air.

RIGHT: BPA members earn torch awards raking lawns for Make Difference Day.

BOTTOM RIGHT CORNER: Jessica Wisenbaugh and Jessica Cornell are the Queens of the Leaf Mountain, who said you're too old for playing make-believe?

BOTTOM CENTER: Marek Sawicki gets buried alive while he lays down for a quick nap.

Holidays

Something More Special

LEFT: Can you guess who's all donned up with their Halloween costume? It's none other than Brenda Camire!

BELOW: Liz Schmidt and Justin Ambrose spend their Valentine's Day gazing into each other's eyes.

RIGHT: Stephani Williams is ready to greet people at the Memorial Day parade dressed up as a doll.

Phillip Wellman and Andrea Sawicki are pictured here with Amyre Makupson, the news anchor for UPN 50. This was at the annual press conference held in Detroit's Athenium Hotel. They also met ESPN sportsbroadcaster, Robin Roberts. Afterwards, Phillip and Andrea both have dreams of becoming successful journalists. "I love talking to highschoolers; they're our future Barbara Walters and Peter Jennings," said Ms. Makupson.

Plaid Shirt Night

An Ending to Plaid

Plaid Shirt Night is a tradition that Mr. Remenap started in 1979. Year after year this has brought hunters from all over to our little town. Since this was the last year for this event, the halls, gym and activity area were packed full of people comparing stories or just checking things out. Plaid Shirt Night is something that all the hunters are surely going to miss.

Lower Middle: Mr. R loves telling his stories.

Lower Left: Poor Mr. Deer is stuck on the wall someone help.

Bottom Right: "Vroom Vroom!" says Brandon Richardson, "Can I take this home?"

"Ok, you know you're short when a bear is taller than you!" says Jordan Smith.

Middle Right: Nicole and Kellie Czarnecki work hard at passing out meat.

Prom Expo

A Preview of Prom

Spring time is prom time and there is no better way to get fired up for prom than the annual Prom Expo fashion show. This year's show was bigger and better than ever. Said prom expo participant Jenn Wallace, "We forget about school and concentrate on prom! Makes sense to me." In all, 32 students participated, making it the largest show yet. Way to go prom expoers!

SPRING BREAK 2000: Fun in the Sun!

Finally, a well deserved, week off of school. This was a week of fun, relaxation, and a time to forget all the worries of homework, tests, and everything else that goes along with school. Some people used this time to catch up on their sleep here in Capac while others traveled as far away from this place as they could get. Many of us got great tans on the beaches of Florida. Others walked along the beach for hours. Meeting new people or getting the name and phone number of a hot guy or girl was also one of the perks of Spring Break. Coming home with piercing or tattoos (even the fake ones) was something to show off to all your friends. Hanging out with friends in camp grounds and hotel rooms built a special bond that could never be broken. The memories we made over Spring Break 2000 will last a lifetime.

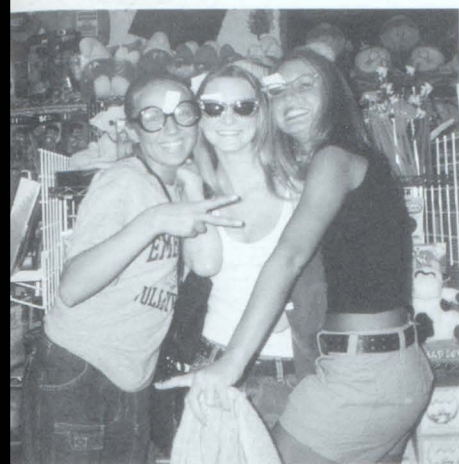

Below: Nikole Yanuska, Nicole Meikle, Jamie Spiller, Amber Ellis, and Tracey Nettay are ready for a night out in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Remember the Magic

April 7, 8, & 9, 2000

Dinner Theatre 2000

Dan Young in his role of the Beast while singing "Beauty and the Beast."

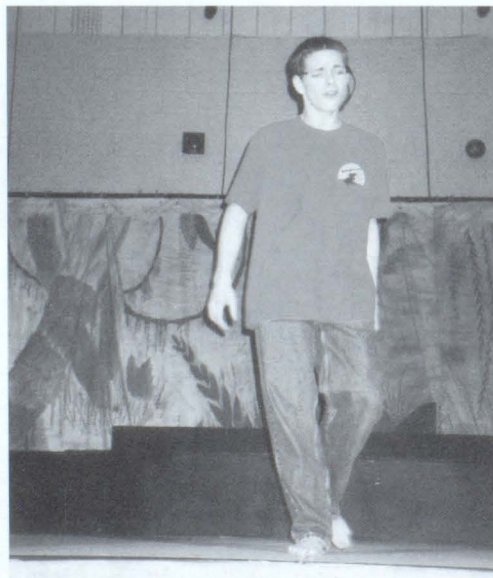

Stephanie Skuratowicz in her role as Belle while singing "Beauty and the Beast."

As soufflés and soup de jours were mentioned, Dinner Theatre 2000 began. The 2000 Dinner Theatre payed tribute to the various Disney movies with songs from Beauty and The Beast, Cinderella, The Lion King, and everyone's favorite The Mickey Mouse Club.

Before each show began, however, the guests were served a dinner by Keegan's Catering, while the cast was rushing around in the dressing rooms and back-stage trying to get ready before their performance.

Lights, camera, action! Chris Brooks began the show with "Be Our Guest" from Beauty and The Beast. The show continued with a brief 10 minute intermission. It ended with "Remember the Magic", sung by the whole Dinner Theatre Cast. All the seniors received a white rose after the performance, and each student was recognized.

Dinner Theatre 2000 was a success! Congratulations choir!

"I'll Make A Man Out Of You" sung by A.J. Durand.

Cinderella being portrayed by Meghan Libkie in the song "A Dream Is A Wish Your Heart Makes."

While dressed in an exquisite gown, Jessica Carden sings one of the solos from "I Won't Say I'm In Love."

Carth Starr as the Master of Ceremonies for 2000 Dinner Theatre welcoming everyone to the last night. Just before he welcomed everyone there was a minor shuffle of the audience trying to find their seats.

"Arabian Nights, like arabian moons..." Those were the words of John Crandell when he sang, sounding just like the singer in the cartoon.

"How many colors are there to the wind? I am sure Melissa Thornberry can tell us"

Centre stage portraying the movie Tarzan with Alice Paluch, Chris Brooks, Crystal Carlson, Katie Kolaczynski, and Melissa Blakenship in the center.

Melissa Blakenship finishes off her song while Dan Young and Meghan Libkie pay their respects to her.

While finishing up "Here Comes The Sun", A.J. Durand jumps up into Stephanie Skuratowicz' arms.

Singing the scales to the final tribute to Dinner Theatre 2000 are: Chris Brooks, Steve Grone, A.J. Durand, and Dan Young.

The Mock Crash was a hit this year. It rose awareness to students about the dangers of alcohol, especially on prom night.

It was put on by S.A.D.D. and sponsored by the St. Clair County M.A.D.D. Chapter.

Benefit Show

CHS CHOIR & SELECT ENSEMBLE CHS

The Benefit Show is put on by the Capac students, teachers, and even some parents. The annual show is watched by many Capac citizens at Christmas time. The Benefit Show is a big event for Capac's High School Choir and Select Ensemble. The proceeds from the show go to help the music department of our school. The theme for the Benefit Show is usually something to do with Christmas because it falls around Christmas time. Features of the show, such as the spot light solos from Dan Young and Brenda Camire, and a duet by Chris Brooks and Erica Ray were a hit! The Spanish Club's play for "The Night Before Christmas" was 'excelente' as they would say in Spanish. The choirs have worked so hard in preparation of the Benefit Show, and their hard work was obviously worth the trouble.

Right: SHHH! The reindeer have landed at Capac High School for the Benefit Show.

Left: Santa, you're a little early this year! Oh it's just Stephanie Skuratowicz during Dinner Theater.

All-night Party

A Seniors very last Party

The Senior all-night party has been going on now for eight years. The party is presented and set up by SADD members. It is a party only for seniors after graduation. To keep the seniors having good fun for the whole night.

"I have to say that I dominated the night in ping pong. I was champion in the morning!!"

-Aaron Guigar

"The best part was the hypnotist. It was funny watching everyone drive cars while they were sleeping."

-Joe Michniacki

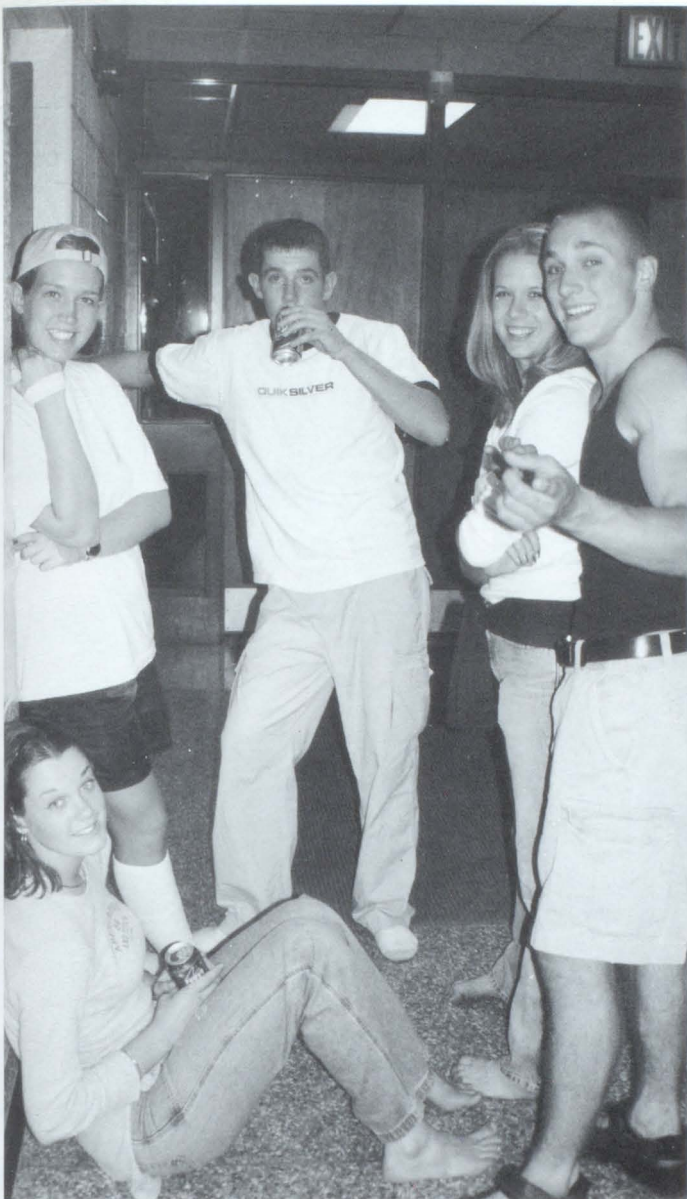

"I had so much fun on the bungee run!!"

- Brenda Camire

"The gambling table was the hot spot for me. I won money all night long!!"

-Tom Bobcean

The crew of the night stands and waits for their turn to get their future's told to them.

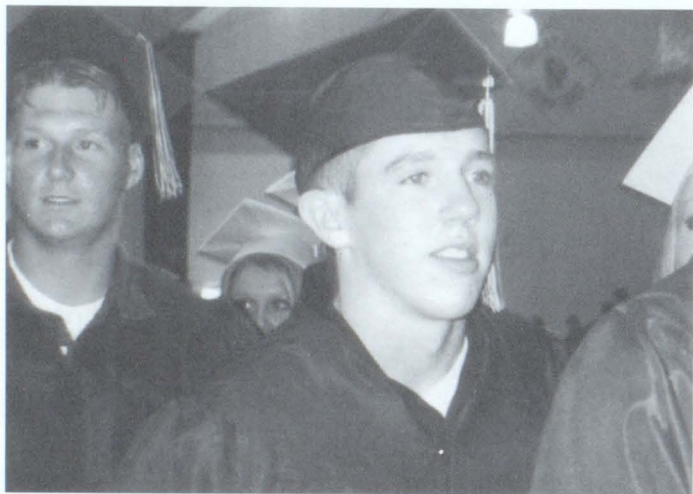

Look at Mary Lewis and Becky Daoust. Mary is flexing her six pack, while Becky is showing off her coconuts!!

The seniors are driving in their sleep!! Someone go get some help! No, they're not, they're just being hypnotized.

The Best in Business

Advertising is very important to the production of our yearbook. Publishing a high school yearbook every year is not an inexpensive venture; the price we charge is not enough to cover the cost of publication. Local businesses who purchase ads will cover a large portion of our expenses. Their ads account for up to 40% of our budget! They make it possible to produce this quality yearbook year after year.

Commercial business support is very important to our yearbook, and as part of our community, we encourage students and their families to patronize the businesses who purchased ads in our yearbook. We couldn't do without them!

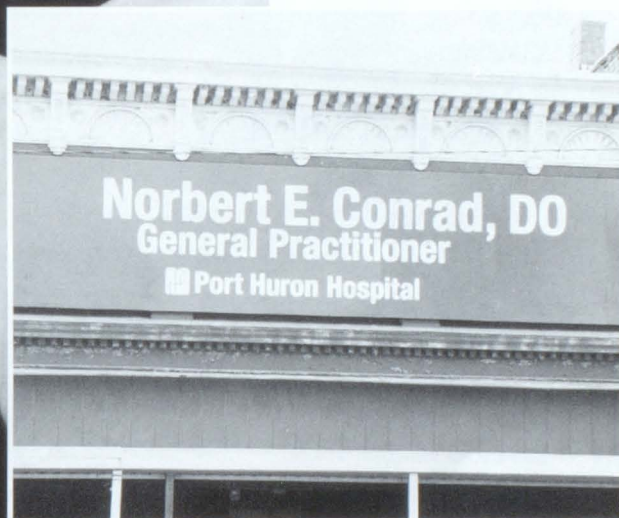

Please accept our sincere appreciation and thanks for your continued support and encouragement. We look forward to serving you well into the next millennium.

*Mr. R's, owned by our own Mr.
Remenap, has long yearbook.*

Julie Pelak and Courtney Lewis, hard at work on the yearbook.

Dr. Conrad, now affiliated with Port Huron Hospital, has purchased ads with us for years.

A long time supporter of our yearbook, Capac State Bank has been in business more than 100 years.

Brenda Jean Camire

Brenda,

From the day we brought you home, you have been our precious little Bren.

From a little rugrat, to a cowgirl, to Homecoming Princess, to the lovely young lady you are, we have been there for you. You never gave up and if anyone could make it we knew that you could. Your life has just begun and remember you can be anything that you want to be. You are our little angel and we're glad God let us keep you here.

Congratulations and we will always be there for you.

Love, Dad, Mom, Paul, and Joseph

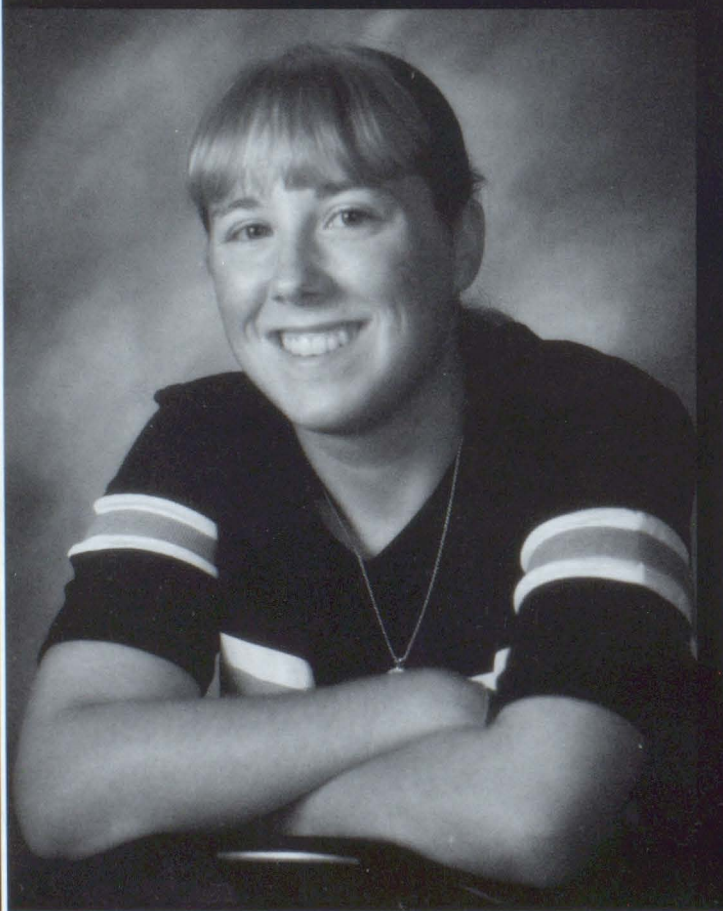

Jen Kluger

Jen,

Our little girl is all grown up and now it's time for graduation. First it was J.J., then Jeremy was next, and now you!

You excelled in everything you did, always giving 100%. You have made us very proud!

Always Remember

Who's in control of your life...you are!

There are so many choices in the world today about where to live, what to do, and who to spend your time with. But if you remember this one simple truth, you'll be able to make the decisions that are right for you...

Never forget that you're the one in control of your life. Decide on the values that are most important to you, and live by them always.

Never compromise them or give them up for another person or situation—even when it seems as though that's the only way to get what you want. You may win in the short term by doing this, but never in the long run.

You have so much potential and ability, use them wisely, and as best as you are able, and everything you desire out of life will be yours one day. If you are true to the highest ideals in everything you do and say and by how you treat others, then success is guaranteed in every aspect of your life. ~Edmund O'Neill you and will always support you!*

With Much Love

You are our son; the word means many things to different people. It can be trouble and worry, fear and distrust and tremendous regret. In our case, it means the joy of being part of a wondrous person who brings never ending happiness as we watch you develop skills and abilities beyond expectation. You are every parent's dream, strong of will yet gentle of heart, willing to except change with open eyes and understanding. Life holds unforeseen trials and joy for you. Embrace fate with the knowledge that all things are possible with effort. One last thing must be said, you are the best friend a father ever had, we are always there for you.

Love,
Dad, Mom, and Kim

From Potty Training to Pinning the Opponent, You've done well, Aaron!

We could never put into words how proud we are of you. From the day you were born, you have been like a little burst of energy, here, there, and everywhere.

And time, how it has flown. You have never let anything get in your way. Even though you've had to deal with athsma since you were four, it may have slowed you down at times--but it has never stopped you.

These past few years, watching you wrestle with such determination and intensity, it was like you had to prove something. Well, you have done it, Aaron! You have gained the respect of your friends, family, and teachers. I have no doubt that you will succeed in whatever you choose to do in your life.

I know the day is coming when you'll be packing and leaving for college, you will be missed. You are a bright and shining light in our lives and we wish you the best of luck.

Missy,

Well you will be leaving high school real soon and then you are off to college, then you get to tackle the big bad world. When you were a child growing up you gave us a run for our money. But we all survived sometimes we wondered how but we did. Now that you have out grown that you have blossomed into a beautiful young lady we are very proud of. And as you continue to grow we know that we have nothing to worry about because you do the best that you can do at everything. So, as you wander off into the world we are going to miss you very much. Keep up the good work and you will be successful at everything you set out to do.

God Bless & Love You Always,

"Every new beginning comes from some other beginning's end." --Semisonic

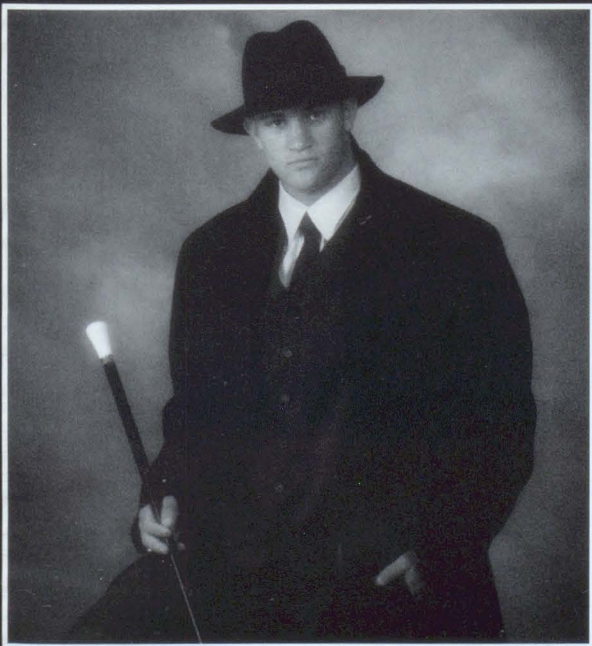

Now as you start a new beginning, our only wish for you is that you may continue to grow in love, understanding and wealth of experience so, as life brings change, you persist to value the things that really matter.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Nicole,
Jacqueline, and Patrick

Mark Mandeville

Here's lookin' at you kid,

We have watched you grow from a tiny baby in an incubator, to a six foot, four inch young man ready to take on the world. You have a strong mind. Even when you were younger, you knew what you wanted. You decided you wanted and go to space camp and worked the whole year to get there. Every day you make decisions we are proud of. We know you have a strong heart. We see you being loyal to your friends, your teachers, and your teammates. It is wonderful to watch you (in a world filled with 'me-first' people) think of other people. Your spirit is strong as well. You went from the little boy who looked at one hot dog in a class of five and said "It's too bad Jesus isn't here, he could multiply it for us," to a young adult, who simply lives a faith-filled life. That spirit will see you through life even when we cannot be with you. You've turned into a strong young man and we know that you will face the future with confidence, you know you face it with our love.

Mom & Dad

Amber Burk

Dear Amber,

Congratulations sweetheart!

We are so very proud of the beautiful young lady you have become and of all that you have achieved. We know that whatever path you choose you will do great! We love you so much!

*Love Always,
Dad, Mom, and Kenny*

Jillian S. Kegler

Dear Jill,

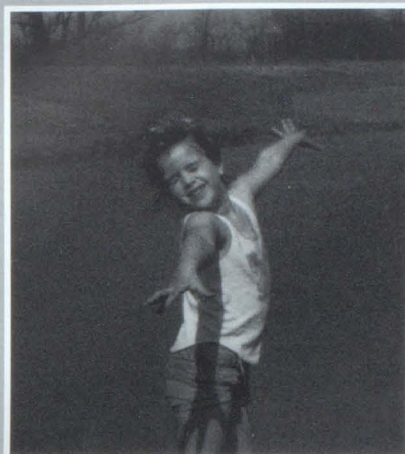

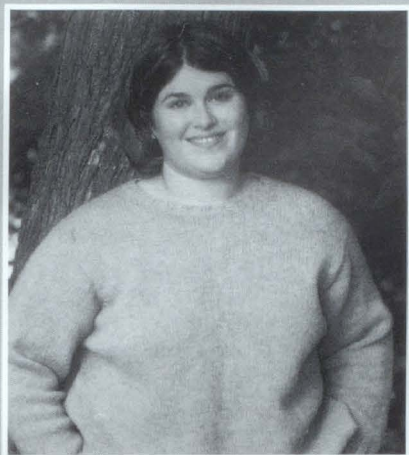

When you were very small
We protected you from your fears
We held your hand and wiped away your tears
You would look at us with wonder in your eyes full of questions
Always wanting to know why
As we watch you walk toward your future
You walk this road alone
For our job is done
And your future is your own

*God Bless You
Love Always,
Mom & Dad*

Ruth Flowers

Your children are not your children.
They come through you but are not from you.
And though they are with you, they belong not to you.
You may give them your love but not your thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow.

The hidden well-spring of your soul
must needs rise and run murmuring to the sea:
And the treasure of your infinite depths would be revealed to your eyes.
But let there be no scales to weigh your unknown treasure: and seek not the depths of your knowledge with staff or sounding line.
For self is a sea boundless and measureless.

I love you, my pretty princess.
Trust in God as He leads you on your life's journey.
Nellie
